CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.

II. No person to advance less than 1*s.*; above five pounds, 2*s.* 6*d.* and so on in proportion.

III. In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller.

IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 5*s.* in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

V. The sale of any lot is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or errors of description.

VI. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of Two Days after the conclusion of the sale, the lots are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expense, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which they were bought. Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.

VII. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited, and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Gentlemen who cannot attend this Sale, may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble Servants,

SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE,

224 FIELD OFFICER'S GOLD PENINSULAR MEDAL for Busaco (engraved on the reverse) awarded to LIEUT.-COLONEL (afterwards MAJOR-GENERAL) GEORGE ELDER. Also the CROSS of JOHN (VI) PRINCE REGENT OF PORTUGAL, for services in the PENINSULAR WAR, awarded to the same, a white enamelled Cross with the Prince's portrait on one side in centre and on the reverse his initials J. E.; each limb on both sides is ornamented with a green leaf inscribed in gold letters with "Busaco, F. D'Honor, C. Rodrigo, Badajoz" (the last on rev. missing); the limbs are united by a wreath; both with ribbons attached, extremely rare 2

 Major-General Sir George Elder, K.C.B. was appointed Captain of the 95th Foot in 1801; received his majority for service in Portugal in 1809, and promoted to Lieut.-Colonel in 1811, in which capacity he commanded the 3rd battalion of Portuguese Chasseurs or "Caçadores"; was present at Busaco, Fuentes d'Onor, Ciudad Rodrigo and Badajoz; was specially mentioned by Wellington in his despatches of 11 July and 25 July, 1810; 9 April, 1811; 4 Feb. 1812 (Ciudad Rodrigo); and 3 April, 1812 (Badajoz, where he was wounded). He received the order of knighthood, 13 Nov. 1813; was made a C.B. 4 June, 1815; promoted to Major-General in 1823, and appointed Lieut.-Governor of St. John's, Newfoundland, 4 Oct. 1826. Died 3 Dec. 1837. From the Records it appears that Major-General Elder also received, besides the above decorations, the Gold Peninsular Cross. The Cross of John Prince Regent of Portugal described above appears to be unpublished. It was specially granted for the services inscribed upon it.
